CITY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Unless otherwise noted: All members of City Boards and Commissions are appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council for staggered terms; serve without pay; may be reappointed without limit; serve until their successors are selected; and, elect their own officers. The City of Murfreesboro encourages its residents to volunteer for service on a Board or Commission of interest to them by submitting an application. Applications are available from the Office of the Mayor.

References to "M.C.C.§" are to the Section of the Murfreesboro City Code establishing the Board or Commission and its membership. Identifying references following a member's name indicate a membership qualification met by the individual. The date on the far right is the date the member's current term expires. Meetings of all Boards and Commissions (with the exception of the Risk Management Commission), are public meetings and any one may attend. The schedule of public meetings is published monthly in the Daily News Journal, shown on Government Channel 3, and is available from the Office of the Mayor.

The AIRPORT COMMISSION oversees the operations, maintenance, and leasing arrangements of the Murfreesboro Municipal Airport located at 1930 Memorial Boulevard. The Commission consists of 7 members and 2 ex officio members. Members serve 3-year terms. (M.C.C.§3-51)
